

Argentina Wingshooting

SUGGESTED GEAR LIST/ABOUT YOUR TRIP

PASSPORT – AIRLINE TICKETS – GUN PERMITS

You're allowed two (2) shotguns on your permit – auto's are suggested. Register your guns, cameras, etc. with US Customs before leaving the country and keep the certificate. Bring some spare parts for your guns. You don't want a broken gun half way around the world.

Gun Cleaning Equipment. This is volume shooting! Shooting gloves (baseball/golf gloves work well – adhesive tape for your fingers/thumb) Shooting Glasses, Hearing protection, Brimmed hat, Shell pouch or shooting vest

Recoil Pad or padded shirt (Past makes and excellent one) in addition to your butt pad on the gun

Rain Gear (to make sure it doesn't!) as well as Mosquito Repellent and Sun Screen

CHEST WADERS are a must for waterfowl hunts – NOT HIP BOOTS – neoprene is suggested

Camera and Film (expensive & hard to find in Argentina)

Lightweight Boots and Walking Shoes

Camouflage Clothing is suggested, there's no need for 'dressy' clothes, just comfortable/casual in town

Light/Medium weight jackets or coats, Heavy coats for Waterfowl/Combo' hunt in late June, July & August

Personal 'First Aid Kit' – cold pills, aspirin, Imodium, chapstick, vitamins, etc & any personal medication
NO VACCINATIONS ARE NEEDED

You're allowed two (2) checked bags (50# maximum each), including your lockable Gun Case. You are responsible for airline departure taxes ($30+/-) when leaving Argentina. Flights depart Miami about 10PM and arrive back about 6AM. Plan to arrive in Miami late afternoon going down. Schedule return flights after 9AM.

The WEATHER from September through March is warm to hot in the Dove areas – 80's & 90's+. April starts fall and cooler weather, expect 40-70 degrees. Late June to early August is the coldest weather. Expect some near freezing temperatures on some waterfowl & combo' hunts. If you think you'll need it, bring it along.

Electricity is 220 volt or generators at the ranches. Bring a converter/transformer for your electrical appliances.

Local liquors are included with your package. If you drink a specific brand, bring it from home or pick it up at Duty Free in the airport. There are also Duty Free sales on the airline flights to/from Argentina.

The customary tip for bird boys is $25/day. It's also customary to tip your Guide/Host and/or driver and the house staff (cooks, maids, etc.) The general suggested tips for The Entire Trip are: Staff - $50, Driver - $10, Translator/Host - $30, Guides/Scouts - $30. These are guidelines for a 3 day hunt - You're the judge.

Cash (there's no need to change currency) gets you an immediate 10% discount when shopping. Cash is appreciated for additional ammo due to the banking 'situation' in Argentina. A 1-2% surcharge may be charged for checks. Cashmere & leather goods are the best buys. Argentina is plus 1 hour from Eastern Daylight Time.

CLEAN & PACK YOUR BOOTS ON TOP WHEN RETURNING – USDA will disinfect them upon arrival.
